
Daylite Cloud Referral Program

We've created a Referral Program so you can get paid a commission for the people you refer to Daylite Cloud.

Currently this is only available for Daylite Cloud, but other products may be available in the future.

Who is the Referral Program for?

The Referral Program is for Marketcircle Certified Experts, Online Marketers such as review sites, industry experts, and customers that want to promote Daylite Cloud to others.

Requirements

- In order for us to make payments to you, you need to have a valid PayPal account.
- If you are not a Marketcircle Certified Expert, your website and social media accounts will need to be approved by our marketing team to ensure that your means of promoting are in line with our brand and values.

How it Works

- You create a referral account by filling out the form on our referral page or by contacting someone on our team directly.
- Once we've reviewed your details, your account will be setup and you'll get a referral ID as well as a special link to use on your website, in emails, and on your social media outlets.
- When someone clicks on your link and visits our website, we record that the visitor came from you (as long as that visitor is not employing Ad Blockers and has not come from a previous referral link).
- When a visitor signs up for a Daylite Cloud trial, the lead is matched to your referral ID.
- When that lead subscribes to Daylite by entering in their credit card, your referral account will get credited.
- After the resting period (3 months and a $50 minimum owed), we make payouts in USD to your PayPal account monthly. Payment will be done on the 10th of the month for your previous month's commission.

Commissions

Commissions are paid out in USD only. If the subscription is in another currency, it will automatically be converted to USD.

Refunds

If a customer receives a refund for their subscription, your commission will be deducted accordingly. Currently, refunds are not shown in your account as they are calculated manually. We are working on automating this process so your account will reflect refunds, however, this means that currently your commission amount may not be 100% accurate as it will not reflect any refunds.
